Door of Hope

An encouraging and supportive program for women
survivors of sexual abuse

Door of Hope

A supportive and encouraging ten session program for female survivors of sexual abuse.

In an environment of support and loving acceptance women will have an opportunity to share their journey and to grow through increased levels of connection and trust.

Participants will find tools for living beyond coping and begin to discover more about their true value and uniqueness.

Testimonies

"I was absolutely astounded that a course could and did provide so much relief, understanding and insight to not only my past, but where I am going and how I am going to get there!"

"Not just an experience but a stepping stone to my path of restoration."

"Amazing program – so real, so encouraging, so healing".
